Season of Good Will

For those of you rubbing your eyes I'll save you the bother; that really is Will Young with his arm around one of our Skippers from Woods River Cruises in the cockpit of Indulgence.

Will took a London cruise last weekend along with 10 other winners of 'Pop Idol' from various countries around the world. The purpose of their trip was to film a short piece that will feature at the start of a show called 'World Idol' which will be shown Christmas day on ITV1; it is also being shown in 32 other countries worldwide including Australia and the USA as Guy Sebastian and Kelly Clarkson (respective winners from those countries) were also on board and competing.

Will was delightful and despite huge pressures on his time he still found the time to have his photo taken with the crew and sign his latest chart topping Single and Album which Chris had brought with him. Apparently they are for his Mum and Sister but judging from the smile on his face we think that they are really for him. We wish Will the very best of Luck in his quest to become the World Idol so tune in Christmas day to see him and more importantly us !

Cowes Week 7th-14th August 2004

Later than usual this year, our availability for Cowes week is still good although we have already sold over 50% of our capacity on all of our available vessels, so if you were thinking about a day with us during this year's festival we recommend a call to the sales team sooner rather than later.

You can design your own itineraries and catering should you wish but we think we have the perfect formula for a day at Cowes and will include all your food and drink from prices starting at £3,000. Call our sales team on 01296 696006 for further details.
