A Proud day for Indulgence

It's been over 3 years since Indulgence Charters first welcomed guests aboard our Flagship Predator 63. Since then we have had countless charters some in the sun and some in the rain. However with my hand on my heart I can honestly say that I can not recall a guest who has ever left an Indulgence boat unhappy.

In those 3 years we have always insisted upon the finest cuisine, first class service and the highest standard of skippers and crew that reflect the truly remarkable boats that we use and we have always been proud that we primarily use Sunseekers.

It was therefore a very happy day for everybody involved within Indulgence when we were awarded 'Recognised' status by Sunseeker International as we like to see this as recognition for all of the hard work that we have done in the past and the constant achievement of standards that we set ourselves.

We are now very proud to display the crest shown above and further cements our relationship with Sunseeker International and Sunseeker Sales, both of whom have been wonderfully supportive of Indulgence from day one. For this support and the recognition they have given us they have our sincere thanks and our promise that our standards will never fall.

Stationary Charters

It only struck us because of an engineer who was late for an appointment but sitting on Indulgence with nothing to do within the confines of St Katherines dock is actually a really nice place to be. It's strangely peaceful for a plot of land that is only minutes away from the heart of the capital yet the presence of other boats and even the odd seagull give it an immense feeling of coastal tranquillity.

So for those who may be looking to try us before putting to sea, wishing to find an exclusive venue for a cocktail party or simply a special place to have a works party or even a leaving do; why not charter our Predator 63 on the berth. Her lack of movement will mean no crew or fuel costs in fact the only thing you will pay for is a rental charge plus the food and drink that you consume. Give our sales team a call for more details and then bring on the Pimms!
